Colorful Event Installs Newly Elected Officers

Large Audience at Temple Monday Eve

The lodge room of the Masonic Temple was filled to capacity Monday evening to witness the installation of officers-elect of the Order of Eastern Star. The event was characterized by thoughtfulness, beauty, color and sincerity. The theme of trees, with colors of fuchsia and chartreuse, was beautifully woven into all appointments and pageantry. Past Patron Harold Roberts, as Master of Ceremonies, skillfully presented an evening of great satisfaction to the friends of the new officers, who took their obligations as Worthy Matron, Edna Z. Barkman; Worthy Patron, Thomas Henderson; Associate Matron, Dola Ann Black; Secretary, Francis Brain; Treasurer, Edna Holland.

The Christmas Carols as played by Dean A. G. H. Bode formed the musical prelude of many lovely numbers dispersed throughout the program which included, Francis Eakman's solo, "Trees"; "Christmas Lullaby," and "God Bless This House," by Charlotte Bush, accompanied by her husband, Kenneth Bush.

The temple was decorated with Christmas boughs, the clever work of Thomas Henderson, who will leave the decorations intact for the holiday season.

Rev. Frederic Grootsema gave the invocation and Dr. Arthur O. Pritchard the evening benediction. The Brothers of the Sierra Madre Lodge acted as ushers throughout the evening. Refreshments followed the colorful event which the installing officers, Ethel Henderson, Iva Owen, Past Matron of the Lexington Chapter, El Monte, and organist, Lois Goss of the Temple City Chapter, so successfully accomplished.

Mrs. Barkman, beautifully attired in a regal gown of white satin, carried a bouquet of Lucille roses with white orchid center and streamers of fuchsia and chartreuse, a gift from her husband, Albert J. Barkman.

Roy H. Pickett Celebrates Nineteenth Anniversary

Roy Pickett is celebrating his 19th year in the service station business in Sierra Madre this week, and is receiving congratulations of his many friends. He started in business on Baldwin Ave., where Anthony's wash rack is now located, just north of the Edison office, in 1925, and six years later, when the buildings were erected at the corner of Baldwin and Sierra Madre Blvd., moved to that location where he has been since.

Mr. Pickett has expanded considerably since that time, securing additional ground and added buildings, one being the repair shop for all makes of cars on the rear of the lot to the east, and the original building was enlarged to furnish room for tire and battery service.

Mr. Pickett has made many friends with his courteous treatment of his customers and has built up a fine business, and states he has greatly enjoyed his relations with the Richfield Oil Co. and with the public.

WEBSTER DAILEY SPEAKER AT THE GARDEN DINNER

Webster Dailey, prominent nurseryman of San Gabriel, will be the speaker at the dinner meeting of the Garden club at Masonic Temple Monday evening, Dec. 11, at 6:30.

Mr. Dailey is much in demand as a speaker at Garden clubs and is a recognized authority on plant life. He will speak on the subject, "Ornamental Shrubs."

Reservations may be made by phoning Mrs. McTavish, C.U. 5-6872.

Radio Star Interested in Charleen Stansbury

Mrs. Grace McCarty is in receipt of a personal letter from Rose Stevens, star of "Going My Way," who has become interested in Mrs. McCarty's artist pupil, Charlene Stansbury of this city, for whom a splendid career is predicted.

Miss Stansbury asked Mrs. McCarty to send some recordings of Miss Stansbury's voice since she is not returning to California at present but expects to hear her next spring. She expresses great interest in this young artist and asks Mrs. McCarty to keep in touch with her.

Miss Stansbury has been studying with Mrs. McCarty for five years and has had no other teacher. She has been filling a number of engagements and is said to be headed toward the Metropolitan.

AN APOLOGY

The News regrets that we were forced to omit several very fine articles of news this week, due to lack of space on account of government restrictions on newsprint paper.

Masonic Officers for New Year

At the regular meeting of the Sierra Madre Lodge No. 408, P.M. and A.M. Tuesday evening, December 5, the following officers were elected: Henry Rintelman, Master; John Buchan, P.M., Sr. Warden; George Morgridge, P.M., Jr. Warden; Clarence Sandage, Treasurer; Raymond Andrews, P.M. Secretary; Dean A. G. H. Bode, Chaplain and organist; James Pierce, Sr. Deacon; Thomas Meader, Jr. Deacon; Boyd Keith, P.M. Marshal; Fayne Lockhart, Sr. Steward; Henry Nord, P.M. Jr. Steward; Marvin True, Tiler. The installation will be held the evening of January 9.

A beautiful gavel was presented to Mrs. Barkman by Worthy Patron Thomas Henderson, a traditional custom of the Order.

Quota for Christmas Boxes for Boys on High Seas Doubled

The Red Cross recently made an appeal for Christmas boxes for the boys on the high seas and received a splendid response and 148 boys will be the pleased recipients of that many boxes. The number set for Sierra Madre by headquarters was 75 and our city went over the top as usual and nearly doubled the quota.

All of the churches, clubs, American Legion, Brownies and other organizations as well as many individuals responded to the call.

Mrs. Edward Clinton Young, chairman, and Mrs. N. B. Hutton, vice-chairman of the Camp and Hospital committee, express the thanks of the Red Cross for the generous co-operation of our citizens.

First of Series at Woman's Clubhouse

The Sierra Madre Woman's club members and their guests will have their first of series of dances December 9 at the clubhouse. Spaghetti dinner will be served between 8 and 9 p.m. The music will be recordings of well-known bands being played by the recently purchased juke box.

Assisting Mrs. Ralph Tweddell who is in charge of the dance will be members of the Philanthropy and Youth Activities section.

Reservations by club members can be made until December 5 to Mrs. Bob Evans at Custer 5-4093.

Holiday Luncheon, Christmas Program Next Wednesday

A traditional holiday luncheon will be served next Wednesday at the meeting of the Sierra Madre Woman's club. Carrying out the Christmas spirit, the Anoakia Girls' Choir will present a program of carols and Christmas songs. A short dramatic play will also be presented by the drama group of the same school.

The luncheon will be served at 12:45 p.m. and will be followed by short business meeting. The program for the afternoon will start at 2:30.

Mr. Toyette Stoddart, luncheon chairman of the month, will be assisted by Mrs. Jean Pratt, Mrs. Edward Halperin, Mrs. Waverly Pratt, Mrs. A. F. Stader, Mrs. Raymond Simpson and Mrs. Steve O'Donnell.

Christmas Party At the Guild

The next meeting of the Arts Guild, to be held Friday evening, December 8, is to be a Christmas party.

Everyone attending is invited to bring a wrapped Christmas gift, not to exceed 25¢ in value, to be placed on the tree. To the one bringing the most unique gift, in the opinion of the judges, a prize will be awarded.

In addition to the party, a musical program will be provided as well as games for those who care for them.

COURT OF HONOR MAKES AWARDS

December 4, Court of Honor for the Pasadena-San Gabriel Valley was held at the Grammar school, Herbert Haymaker being chairman. Second-class award was made to William Freeland and merit badges to Loren Jones, Ray Hinkley and William R. Smythe, Troop No. 1, Congregational church, Harry G. Caskey, Scout Master; second class to Tom Polgreen, first class, Stanley Huntsinger and Douglas Keith Wallace, merit badge, Douglas Keith Wallace of Troop No. 3, Bethany church, Maxwell H. Brennenman, Scout Master; merit badge, David Duran, Frank LaSalle, John Van den Broeke, Troop No. 10, Kiwanis club, L. R. Gervais, Scout Master; Star Scout award, Calvin Floyd; Five Year Award, Maxwell H. Brennenman, Scoutmaster. Supt. Henry Korsmeier gave a very inspiring talk to Scouts, Cubs and Masters.

There was a very gracious representation of Cub Dens present with Jimmy Wilcox receiving highest Cub honor. Cubmaster Hunsinger presented honorary warrants to Cub Den Chiefs John C. Claus, Rodney Smythe, Loren Jones, Max Huber.

There was a great disappointment among Scoutmasters that the attendance of parents was so small. They regret that so little interest is taken in the work and in providing suitable places for the troops to meet.

Kiwanis Dist. Has 100% Attendance

Bruce McGill Sponsored Inter-Club Project

Many local Kiwanians attended the dinner and installation of Cecil Whitehead of Altadena as Lieutenant Governor of Division 10 for 1945, Saturday evening at the Masonic Temple in Pasadena.

President Bruce McGill of the Sierra Madre club presented the plaque (an expression of appreciation) to the retiring Lieutenant Governor, Dr. Norman Abbott of Ontario. The highlight of the program was when Mr. McGill made his report on the Inter-Club project, a 100% attendance pledge made by all clubs of the district as a gift to be presented at the retirement of their Governor. Inasmuch as Mr. McGill sponsored the project he was invited to make the report. The attendance for the entire district met the 100% with the exception of three members; one Kiwanian was in the hospital, very ill; another in Mexico City, and the third in Seattle, Wash.

Among the Kiwanians who attended the dinner at Pasadena were Mr. and Mrs. McGill, Mr. and Mrs. John Billheimer, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Carl G. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Klunk, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Penn and Mrs. Donald Damon.

Assisting Mrs. Ralph Tweddell who is in charge of the dance will be members of the Philanthropy and Youth Activities section.

Reservations by club members can be made until December 5 to Mrs. Bob Evans at Custer 5-4093.

R. H. MOULTON, CHAIRMAN WAR FINANCE COMMITTEE, SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA.

The greatest mass sale of War Bonds in any one day since this country was forced into the present world conflict is expected for today, the third anniversary of the infamous Jap attack on Pearl Harbor.

"Don't Forget Pearl Harbor. Buy Another Bond," is the slogan of the giant one-day drive all over the country, in which every Bond-selling group will participate.

Co-Chairmen Dan C. Reib and G. L. Alspaugh stated that by rolling up a huge total of Bond purchases today, we not only will have a part in avenging the traitorous attack on Pearl Harbor, but we will be furnishing our fighting men with news they want to hear—that we at home are backing them to the limit.

Communication

(The following was read at the Kiwanis club meeting Tuesday noon.)

As a member of the group to which Mr. Bruce McGill read the paper later printed in the NEWS, I was confused. I could not applaud. When I read it in print, I was grieved that one who was so kindly at heart should show so little discrimination. What was he trying to do, attack the friends of the loyal Japanese, the Japanese themselves, the Americans who fail to give their blood, or all three?

If he is attacking the friends of the loyal Japanese, of whom I am one, then we first will ask, What relation has the giving of blood for a wounded soldier to do with a Christmas gift to an American born Japanese, unless it happens the wounded soldier is a Japanese? Second, I do not know of any friends of the Japanese who have refused to give their blood if possible; indeed, we will go farther and invite comparison with any other group in Sierra Madre.

If the writer was attacking the loyal Japanese themselves, I can only say,—Look at the hundreds of Japanese in the American Army, many of whom have been decorated for bravery. Do not forget that according to the F.H.I. there was no sabotage by Japanese in the Hawaiian Islands. Also take into account that before the Japanese can move in this country they must have a job, a place to live and permission from the Army.

If the writer is attacking any American who is able to give his blood through the Blood Bank but who refuses to do so, I would join him in the severest condemnation of such a person.

The American spirit is expressed supremely in the Declaration of Independence and in the Constitution. Let us not only praise these wonderful documents, let us live by them, and let us never forget that the Nazi influence began in Germany by attacks on minority groups.

FORGET PEARL HARBOR!

IT IS NO LONGER necessary to remember that black day in our history when the little yellow man made an abortive attempt to seize control of that part of the world not already subjected to Hitlerism!

WE HAVE LEFT our dead on almost all the battlefields of the world, and our living dead are in a thousand hospitals to remind us of our duty.

LET US REMEMBER only those who have died and are now dying that we may be free to enjoy the privileges of a democracy that they will never know again.

HATE IS NOT GOOD FOOD! But a sense of responsibility is essential to the development of civilization!

WE HAVE A DEBT to pay and the LEAST we can do is to LEND our money to further our ultimate victory over the rapacious hordes whose ruthlessness has made Ghengis Khan look like a puerile school boy.

WE ARE OFFENDED by the need to offer a painting, a prize sow or a movie star's kiss to persuade a secure civilian populace to buy bigger War Bonds. Any man who has surplus funds and does not voluntarily put them into Bonds is, in our opinion, a Stinker!

THERE IS NO CHARITY involved when you buy a Bond! You are only banking your money at interest with the greatest and soundest bank in the world.

BY SAVING instead of spending you are being patriotic!

YOU ARE HELPING THOSE WHO FIGHT!
YOU ARE STRIKING A BLOW AT INFLATION!
YOU ARE PROTECTING YOUR OWN FUTURE!

DON'T BUY ANYTHING you do not need. Put it into Bond Savings!

WELL, THAT'S WHAT WE THINK! And it is only a repetition of what all responsible people are trying to say:

FIRE FLAMES

Whether you buy a ticket from the firemen to aid in their effort to bring back the Community Christmas Tree and Treat or not, the firemen urge you to buy a War Bond. The Tree will be of great benefit to the spirit of the town and many hands make light work, so any aid afforded the firemen will be appreciated, but we must not neglect the War Bond Drive. The men of the fire department will spend considerable time in making the Christmas Holidays as bright as possible in wartime. Some of us have sons in the armed services and several of the members of the department are serving too. Letters from the boys overseas urge us to continue with the regular customs of the organization as when they were here. The Firemen's annual Christmas Time activities have been missed by many people and we are receiving much encouragement to proceed.

It was cold enough last drill night for the boys to don the warm fire coats. The drill brot to mind that two of our streets have had the names changed. It was George Norris who told them the meaning of "Toyon" which one of the streets now possesses. Houses built some distance from fire plugs on this Road require some detail as to procedure in case of fire.

The time of delivery of the new fire truck is still in doubt. The salesman visited the station a few days ago with the encouragement that it should be ready for delivery near the early part of the year. Well, we can only hope. The truck to be replaced performed gracefully at the latest test, with a few exceptions. One of these was that oil streaked the street following the truck, one cylinder balked and it was hard to get started. Fire hose now carried on this old truck is far beyond the age of safety. To correspond, the new truck should be laden with brand new hose. This, we expect to acquire by the time the truck is delivered.

After weeks of waiting, the committee formed to look into the possibility of getting some new chairs for the firemen's room, finally brought before the meeting a "sample" of what is possible to buy. The chairs are made of steel according to the committee, are very appropriate. They will not burn and they will stand much wiggling. Due to the "hot" meetings, the committee was very considerate.

Back at his old stand, Louis Karger acted as Fine Collector last meeting and as expected, created his old time hilarity. This period of the gathering is looked forward to as the "Children's Hour". There is always something to be found by Louie to be fined for. The objections are high, but the fines are paid. Because the fines have been paid, the men of the department celebrated Wednesday evening with a dinner at Bob Orme's in honor of Vernon Uddell's, Gordon McMillan's and Jim Heasley's 20th year as local firemen. Vernon became a member when still a youngster. In fact he took a great interest before he was old enough to become a member. Since that time, he has been the "wagon wheel" of the organization. Anything and everything that needs fixing, is usually his job to fix, or see that it is. His ability as a mechanic has been of much value to the fire Department. Jim Heasley became a local fireman a short time after arriving in Sierra Madre. He had been a fireman in his hometown in Pennsylvania. He served as Treasurer of the local organization for nearly all of the twenty years and continued in this office until elected as Chief, the office he now holds.

Open Sundays Phone 4059

Chief McMillan has also been faithful member of the organization. He gave valuable assistance in forming the constitution and by-laws, has taken an active part in the meetings and has aided greatly in promoting the programs.

The firemen are grateful to Bob Orme, his wife and her aides for sacrificing one of their "nights off" in order that this celebration can be carried out. There should be a hot time in the old town for one evening, at least.

And now since the rains and cold weather have arrived, there is no reason why we should get careless. This is happening. Several outdoor fires have been left burning to be put out by the firemen. DANGER! Let's keep the FIRES OUT.

Bombs Home of Ancestors

Miss Marjorie Adams, 625 Auburn, tells of an interesting coincidence. Her nephew, Lt. Robert C. Eschweiler, who flies a P-47 Thunderbolt, was recently sent on a mission to bomb the town of Eschweiler, Germany.

YOUR GARDEN

By JESSIE RUSSELL

CHRISTMAS IS COMING! Buy a living Christmas Tree this year. One that you can light up in your own back yard after the war. The children will love it and so will everyone else. This year you can decorate it in the house instead of a cut tree which will only be thrown away after the holidays.

The best all-around tree for this purpose is the Cedrus Deodora Tree. It grows here like a native, will thrive with or without water after it becomes established.

INDOOR DECORATIONS: Because the Eastern Holly does not bear freely in this climate, we have to substitute for our Christmas Decorations. For this, plant some native wild cherry, Prunus Illicifolia, for the glossy, pointed foliage, and some Pyracantha for the bright red berries, and by combining the two, you can make Holly Wreaths and Bouquets that almost equal the expensive Eastern Holly. These two shrubs are also easy to grow, requiring little water, and they will add greatly to the beauty of your landscape garden.

I have spoken before in this column about the Double Red Poinsettias. When talking about Christmas decorations, I must mention them again as they are "a natural" for Christmas cheer, and too, they will do a lot to brighten up the winter garden.

Cedrus Deodora Trees—Established in containers, $4.00 to $5.00 ea. Pyracantha (with berries), 85c ea.

Prunus Illicifolia, 85c ea. Dble. Red Poinsettias, 75c ea.

Remember Pearl Harbor!

Today is the third anniversary of the treacherous attack by Japan on Pearl Harbor and the citizens of Sierra Madre are observing that event by sponsoring a number of advertisements to assist in putting the Sixth War Loan drive over the top.

We'll bet the Japs now wish they had stayed home. No doubt about it. But it all seemed so easy three years ago. America was asleep. They knew that few persons in this country thought Japan would attack us, and fewer still believed that an attack would come without warning.

When the smoke cleared away over Pearl Harbor, the Japanese leaders were positive they had made the right move. We were as near defeat as we have ever been since the Revolution. To the Japs it looked like a sure thing. But that was three years ago.

The danger now is that we are being lulled into the belief that victory will come automatically. It won't. We are winning, but victories are born only of unceasing hard work and hard fighting. Hard-won advantage must not now be lost by mistaking progress toward victory for victory achieved. In matters of production and self-sacrifice our first consideration must continue to be the needs of our fighting men, without any qualification whatsoever.

As a nation, we have accomplished miracles since December 7, 1941. At times we forgot, however, that only as these miracles continue can we reach both Berlin and Tokyo. We are in little danger of a "Pearl Harbor" in these days—that is, as far as a military attack is concerned. But if we become complacent we may be caught off guard by a production shortage of some vital war supply that could prove disastrous.

Much will be said and written on this third anniversary of the "day of infamy." Nothing will better express the spirit of the day, however, than the efforts of those who stay on the job, buy War Bonds, donate blood.

Through their work, together with that of our fighting men, they are helping to make future "Pearl Harbors" impossible.

Behind the "Big Push"

Ever since the Allied armies were forced to pull up at the Siegfried Line after their race across France, we have waited for the inevitable "Big Push" that would carry us deep into Germany, and eventually to Berlin.

Now that "Big Push" is well under way. How far and how fast it will go on its present momentum will depend on several factors. One of these is the ability of Hitler and his Gestapo to keep German civilians and soldiers under control.

Another factor will be the extent of our success in supplying our fighting men with the right materials at the right time. This campaign might have started sooner if supplies had been adequate. They were not.

Two shortages in particular have been a handicap—heavy shells and military trucks. Heavy artillery shells actually have been rationed in some battles on the European front. Output of military trucks is said to be 40,000 units behind the 1944 schedule.

Big field guns have assumed increasing importance as the war has progressed. To keep them "fed" with shells has turned out to be a major problem. As to trucks, General Eisenhower has been using them by the tens of thousands to move the bulk of supplies from the Channel ports to the front lines. But production lags here at home have reduced the number of vehicles available for replacement. This lag has also handicapped American trucking industry, which is hauling about one-fifth of the war load, and is badly in need of new equipment.

If the "Big Push" is to succeed we must get behind it here on the home front. "Pull" won't win this war—it is "push" that counts.

Payroll Tax

Senator Vandenburg of Michigan is again leading the fight to freeze the social security payroll tax at its present level of one per cent each on employer and employee. Unless he is successful, the rate will increase automatically to two per cent each on January 1, 1945.

Present payroll tax collections are sufficient to cover current disbursements, and it is estimated that the $6,000,000,000 reserve which has been accumulated as a credit will not have to be touched for 20 years and possibly never.

In view of this, Congress should hold the tax at its present figure, at least until it can make a further study of the old-age plan. Some observers believe that the existing rate will be adequate indefinitely.

Workers who retire will not receive larger pensions if the tax rate is raised. The increase will simply mean that both employer and employee will pay double the present tax without any corresponding benefit.

Of course, the more money taken from pay envelopes and from employers, the more the government will have on hand to spend since all social security payments are used for current Federal expenses. But our pension plan was not intended to be used merely as a money-raising scheme.

During the recent political campaign both parties promised lower taxes to individuals and business as soon as possible. It would be ironic indeed if, instead, the payroll tax should now be increased unnecessarily.

The Hickory Grove Lowdown

I was just squintin' at a picture from London—folks were putting on a street demonstration around the Govt. buildings. They wanted something done about unemployment on account of the war work in the factories tapering off. That is a tip for us here, where wages and overtime have been enough to feather everybody's bed, if he chose to do so versus putting it into five-dollar hooch and cover charges.

Extra fur coats, and gold watch chains, and diamond bracelets are okay maybe, if you happen to like such, or think you need something to improve your looks or appeal or whatever it is that is the motivatin' power that causes some folks to crave same. But when war jobs taper, you will find more trade-in value with a war bond than a set of gold earrings or an empty gin bottle.

Anybody who has bought and then cashed in his war bond, can take heed of this London picture. And while there are jobs galore now—for man or woman—it is time to put more of the bulging paycheck into these new bonds just coming out. Salt away some dinero for a rainy day—be somebody—be independent—have that grand feeling.

Yours with the low down,
JO SERRA.

THERE

By A. G. H. BODE

WHEN our students at Cuddeston College left in order to be ordained, they had to pass examination by the examining chaplains of the Bishops, and were required to have what is called a "title"—meaning a place in which to work, with at least some modest guaranteed support.

It was my good fortune to be at college with a number of devoted young men who wished to work especially among the poor, some of them for nothing, in the slums. A Rector in South London, Charles Edward Brooke, who came of a wealthy family, was devoting his life and his means to religious, educational and philanthropic work in a parish in which was situated one of the poorest districts in London. I was glad when I was permitted to join his staff of eleven assistants or curates, who wished to work among the poor, some without salary and some, as in my case, with $400 a year and a furnished room. Five of us lived together in a clergy house in the slum district.

In this slum, some homes consisted of only two rooms, the family living in one and the donkey with a coster-monger's barrow in the other. The locks from off the doors would be stolen and no new ones supplied. Pick-pockets and thieves found a hiding place there. One of our clergy, finding that his visitor had been robbed of his watch, had only to speak to the right person and the watch was returned. None of those slum people would injure one of the clergy. We had been kind to their children, and their sick and their grandmothers. At night we would sometimes hear a rush of feet under our windows and the policeman's shrill whistle, whereupon the big men of our clergy house would be out of bed instantly and could save the policeman from being jumped upon by some inebriate.

Lewis Browne, writing of work done by religious people in the slums, about 40 years before my time, gives the idea that the work was the passing out of tracts to wretched people and some ineffectual "waving of surpliced arms" that did no particular good. I think it will be worthwhile to tell in this column the real and totally different story of what was being done during my visit.

Mr. Brooke, through voluntary subscriptions, had built a large parish church—St. John the Divine, Kennington, and a smaller church in the slum district; two large day schools attended by over 1000 children; two secondary or high schools, and a college for teachers. The schools were the only ones in the district. Poor children could attend free; parents who wished to pay were charged one penny a week. Some devoted teachers taught for 30 years, at very moderate salaries. We young clergy, after an early service and breakfast, taught in the schools a religious lesson with interesting stories from 9 to 9:45. I found you had to be very bright and interesting the last 10 minutes. Our school children had remarkably good characters when they went to work in "the City." Merchants would stop us in the strand to praise one of our boys, or ask for another for a vacancy. The boys sometimes came from the slums, probably coming to school at first with no shoes. Many girls, too, growing up in poverty and wretched surroundings—cheap rent for their poor but respectable families being the reason—became very refined and good young women. We had a large house of devoted Church of England Sisters to help them.

The children loved us, knowing us in our school and in their poor homes. They would step into our beautiful little St. Michael's Church, all bright with painted Saints and angels, to say morning or evening prayers, which could not well be said beside the wash-tub amid family confusion in one room. The little church was theirs, it was another home. I shall never forget a poor ragged little child running to catch up with me on the street late at night, carrying a can of beer from the "pub" to her parents, which at that time was not illegal, and saying to me: "Oh, Mr. Bode, I saw Jesus the other night. He was all in white and He smiled at me." She had learned of Him in our school. She could talk of Him to me as our mutual friend, who said: "Suffer the little children to come unto Me" and "Of such is the kingdom of heaven." And we used to give her and a couple of hundred other children a good meal at school in the winter when the parents' work ceased. Should I turn a street corner after school hours, there would be a rush of children to take my hand, saying: "Aren't you coming to see Mother?" When I kept a little store for a day for a sick woman, a child came in to buy supper with a penny, which there equals four farthings, and asked for a farthing's worth of bread, a farthing's worth of tea, a farthing's worth of water cress, and a farthing candle.

The clergy did not just "wave surpliced arms." Sunday's work was a holiday compared with the work from early morning till late at night on work days, with school teaching and district visiting and hospital visits and charity organization and mothers' meetings and forums and clubs of young men and old. We were pretty tired every night. The self-sacrificing clergy in some cases worked themselves prematurely to death. Of our staff Brooke, Deedes, Lavers, and Bartlett died; Maiden and others broke down. And what men they were! E. L. Strong—a "Blue" of the All-England football team, afterwards author of books and leader in the Oxford Mission to Calcutta; Cathreugh Fisher, president of the Cambridge University Union, made bishop of Nyasaland, and their like.

In the great 12-volume work by Sir Chas. Booth on the "Life and Labor of the People," the author says he is indebted to the clergy, who had all the intimate information of families, their histories and conditions, for most of his details. In our crowded part of South London we had young clergy presiding over College Settlements placed in every few blocks, which provided chapels, schools, teachers, classes, libraries and games, and were supported by the alumni of Eton, Harrow, Trinity and many other great schools and colleges; beside the famous Browning House.

But house-to-house visiting was the most important work, claiming all your sympathies. When I found two dear old people living on 85 cents a week and saw hanging on their wall the legend: "I have been young and now am old, yet saw I never the righteous forsaken nor his seed begging their bread." I went to the "Guardians of the Poor" on their behalf, and carried back the answer that they would be placed apart in distant institutions. "No," they said, "we will starve together before we will be separated." And what then could a young man do, but knock on the door of an empty house to get time to recover his emotional stability?

Life there was not all sad. My men's club, having heard me read a comedy of Shakespeare, moved "a vote of thanks" to Mr. Bode for his humorous readin' and particularly for the way he explained the jokes. And there are pensions now, and slums will be rebuilt.

DO YOU RECALL?

DECEMBER 6, 1906

Work has begun on the Kersting block. It is promised that the room for the bank will be ready for occupancy by the first of February.

The rainfall for the month of November was 1.34. The average for the past 17 years for November was 1.95, for December 3.75.

The Pacific Electric Railway station has been painted, yet the floor has to be put in. This rainy weather emphasizes the fact that we need a freight depot out here.

It is in order to speak of the extremely bad condition of the sidewalk along the north side of Central between Lima and Baldwin Ave. It is impossible to traverse some sections on a dark night. With the bicyclists running noiselessly around without lights, it all tends to make life interesting.

DECEMBER 7, 1928

Harold M. McMillan was elected Master of the Masonic Lodge No. 408 and Mrs. Agnes Tyree was installed as Worthy Matron of the Order of Eastern Star.

The Sierra Madre schools will close December 14 for the Christmas holiday.

The primary ballot nominated 11 men for the five places to be filled in directorship of the Chamber of Commerce: Joe R. Eastwood, R. S. Corlett, Walter W. Alley, Dr. Harold Elk, Chas. B. Klunk, W. R. Humphries, W. H. Ingraham, Al Meyers, M. D. Welsher, E. D. Burbank and J. E. Carpenter.

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Tarr returned by way of Havana and the Panama Canal on the S.S. City of Los Angeles from a several months' stay in the East.

GENERAL COST OF LIVING

Here's one living cost that is STAYING DOWN!

You don't have to be reminded that food, housing, clothing—nearly every living expense—have been going higher and higher during the last several years. But have you noticed that the price you pay for electrical service has stayed down? You probably are using more electricity in your home than ever before, but your electric bills are about the same—perhaps even lower. Edison electric rates have been reduced twice since 1939... and many times in the previous ten years!

"I LIKE IT DOWN HERE!"

COST OF ELECTRICITY

♦ Southern Californians who planned to send Christmas packages overseas, but "missed the boat," or who desire to make an additional contribution to the morale of their fighting men and women now are given that opportunity. The "best gifts of all," Christmas V-Mail War Bond Certificates, will be accepted up to December 10 by the post office for overseas mailing in time for Christmas.

STRAIGHT TALK ABOUT THE 6th WAR LOAN DRIVE

AS WE MOVE closer to victory, it wouldn't be surprising if you were saying to yourself—"What's the big idea of asking for all this additional money now? Isn't the war almost over?"

No sir, it is not! Not by a long shot. Of course, for many months now you've heard mostly about the war with Germany, where our greatest effort is concentrated. That's why many people have the idea that the war's practically over.

But make no mistake about it—nothing could be farther from the truth! The Japanese war is a tremendous undertaking, and victory will come high. We'll have to fight every inch of the way.

Everything Costs More—in the Pacific War

The European war is expensive, but almost everything in the Pacific war will cost more. Take transport costs, for instance: Because of the longer distances, the same amount of freight costs 25 per cent more when shipped to the South Pacific than to Europe. And it takes twice as many cargo ships in the Pacific to support a task force of a given size because turn-around time is twice as great!

More Planes . . . Tanks . . . Ships . . . Oil

In addition, we shall need more of everything. More B-29 Superfortresses that cost $600,000 each. More P-47 Thunderbolts that cost $50,000 each. More M-4 Tanks, with bulldozer blades, that cost $67,417 each. More amphibious tanks—more aircraft carriers—more supply ships—more gasoline and oil than it took for the invasion of Europe!

Care for the Sick and Wounded

And lest anyone forget, we shall need more battalion aid stations—more clearing stations—more evacuation hospitals—more convalescent hospitals—more hospital ships.

For many, many years the sick, wounded, and otherwise disabled veterans will require medical attention and care. That's the least Uncle Sam can do in appreciation of what they've done for us.

Maintenance for Millions

Did you ever stop to think how much money it costs to maintain the 11 to 12 million men and women in our army and navy? Whether the men are actually fighting or not, they must be fed, housed, transported from one training center or battle area to another, cared for in a hundred and one different ways. That all costs money and will continue to until the last man demobilized is back in civilian clothes.

In addition, millions of dollars will be required for mustering out pay, for various benefits and services voted by Congress to help the boys get started in civilian life.

These are reasons enough why patriotic Americans will want to buy heavily during the Sixth War Loan. But here are still more—

Winning the Peace—for Your Country

If we're to win the peace as well as the war, the cost of living must be kept down and the purchasing power of money preserved. A reckless inflation that would necessarily be followed by the catastrophe of deflation—with its unemployment, bankruptcies, misery and heartache—must be prevented at all cost.

Let's make no mistake—a dangerous period lies ahead. The American people have nothing to fear, however, if they show in the future the same common sense they have shown in the past, and continue to put every penny over rock-bottom expenses into the purchase of more and more War Bonds.

Winning the Peace—for Yourself

Want another important reason? Yourself! There isn't a better or safer investment in the world today than War Bonds. In helping your country, you are also helping yourself! Never in our entire history has it been so necessary to save as right now. We'll need money, individually, for education, repairs, replacements, retirement—and we'll need a lot of it.

As you can see there are many reasons, important reasons, why our Government must have the financial support of everyone, and have it for many months to come.

Let all Americans do their part—for their own sake, for their country's.

A Prayer

Across the world the sound of shells has ceased . . .
 And quiet shrouds the battle-rubbled West . . .
 The enemy has laid away his arms, and Death and Pain are done in France.
 But I go on . . . for I must fight and kill . . .
 And work and sweat . . . and hide and run . . .
 For here the enemy is very much alive . . .

His bullets still are made of lead . . .
 Their angry whispers still foretell of sudden death
 For me and others crouched in slime and mud . . .
 The end for us is yet to come . . .
 And so we pray to God to give us strength
 To fight and win . . . without the waste of Time . . .
 And with His Will . . . to see our homes again.

The Sixth War Loan Drive is on. That means it's every American's

ON TO TOKYO!

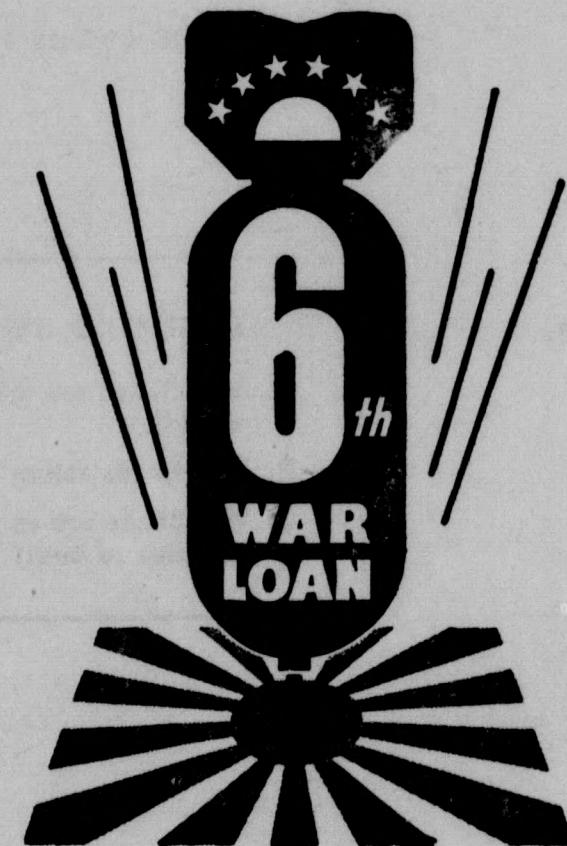

Let's all get behind the greatest march in history—the march to Tokyo—and victory!

On countless invasion fronts, thousands of your fighting men are taking up the battle cry: "On to Tokyo!" We've got to back them up with what it takes for complete victory. Remember, the supply lines in the Pacific are long and your fighting men will need more materiel than was required for the entire European invasion to crush the Jap foe.

Let's Echo that cry with BONDS!

Our boys won't quit until they've reached their goal. Let's not stop buying Bonds until we've reached ours! In this 6th War Loan Drive, the Nation's goal is $14 billions... our individual job is to buy at least an extra $100 Bond... another and then another... let's keep on going... let's keep on buying... let's keep on saying it with Bonds... "On to Tokyo!"

... Do you weigh too much—too little? Don't adopt some hasty, ill-advised course. Weight is a serious matter, deserving the careful consideration of a competent physician. Take no "reducing remedy"—and no panaceas to "build you up"—until you have first discussed the matter with your Doctor; given him an opportunity to study your individual needs. A Resolution

Whereas, Bruce McGill wrote and had published over his signature in the Sierra Madre News, Nov. 30, '44, an article entitled "Merry Christmas to the Japanese," and whereas, the members of this Post desire to support the stand taken by Bruce McGill, Commander of American Legion Post No. 257, of Sierra Madre, and whereas, pressure is being exerted by certain groups to force the Army to permit return of all Japanese-American citizens to the West Coast while we are still at war with Japan,

Now, therefore, be it resolved that this Post does hereby unanimously approve the sentiments and statements in the above mentioned article. Be it further resolved that this Post goes on record as approving the action taken by the Army in removing the Japanese to places of safety for humanitarian reasons and also as backing the Area Commander regarding when they should be permitted to return.

Be it further resolved that purchase of War Bonds and the signing up with the Red Cross for the Blood Bank are most important right now.

A copy of this Resolution and the article "Merry Christmas to the Japanese" shall be sent to Loren Myers, Commander 18th Dist., Dept. of California.

VINTON HOEGEE, Adjutant. RUSSELL LOVEJOY SR., Acting Commander and Past Post Commander.
